John Hancock—"Father of the Revolution"

UPON the Declaration of Independence his name may be read without spectacles. His signature was the first subscribed to the world's most famous State document. In the most realistic sense John Hancock pledged his life and his fortune to the cause of the Revolution. He was one of the richest men in the colonies, holding investments in banks, breweries, stores, hotels, and also owning a fleet of vessels. The seizure of one of these precipitated the Boston massacre. In Revolutionary days and until his death he was a popular idol. When it was proposed to bombard Boston, though it would have resulted in greater personal loss to him than to any other property owner, he begged that no regard be paid to him because of his financial interest. While Hancock did not sign the Constitution of the United States, he used his great influence in its behalf, which awakened the gratitude of Washington. "He was prepossessing in manner, and passionately fond of the elegant pleasures of life, of dancing, music, concerts, routs, assemblies, card parties, rich wines, social dinners and festivities." Until the end of his life the people of Massachusetts loved to honor him. In the stirring events preceding the Revolution he was one of the most influential members of the Sons of Liberty. To this tireless worker for American Independence Liberty was the very breath of life. He would have frowned upon any legislation which would restrict the natural rights of man, and would have voted NO to prohibition enactments. It was upon the tenets of our National Spoken Word that Abraham Lincoln 35 years ago founded his great institution. To-day throughout the length and breadth of the Free Republic their honest brews are famed for quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor. Their brand BUDWEISER has daily grown in popularity until 7500 people are daily required to meet the public demand. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEIM-BROS. BREWERY, ST. Radically Wrong Must Be Radically Changed

By REV. WM. WALLACE KETCHUM
Director of the Practical Work Center, Memphis

TEXT—Marvel not that I said unto thee, ye must be born again. John 3:3.

Men by nature is radically wrong. This, because of sin. If we do not know this by experience we may know it by the Word of God. "All we like sheep have gone astray," says the Prophet Isaiah. "We have turned every one in his own way" (Isa. 53:6). This means we are lost, for stray sheep are lost sheep. Not a few, not the lower strain of society, not the drunkards, the harlots, the thieves, the murderers, but all are lost. God, through the Apostle Paul, says, "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Rom. 3:23). And the Apostle John adds, "If we say that we have no sin we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we say that we have not sinned we make him (God) a liar" (1 John 1:8-10). That is by so saying we really say to God, "Yes! I lie when you say we have sinned." My friend, let us not make God out a liar, and let us not deceive ourselves that all men, because of sin, are radically wrong. What David says of himself is true of every one of us: "Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity and in sin did my mother conceive me" (Psalm 51:5, R. V.). No matter, then, how well born we may have been, the truth is we must be born again.

This means that because we are radically wrong we must be radically changed. How then shall this change be wrought? To reform oneself does not effect the change for reformation is simply an outward process and does not alter man's essential nature, any more than to wash with soap changes the water in the well. To move into a better neighborhood and into a better dwelling does not effect the change, for it is simply leaving a less desirable environment for a better one. No one would try to change the character of a balky, kicking horse by removing it from a dilapidated shed to a palace stable. The propensity to kick and balk would remain the same. To cultivate one's intellect does not alter one's heart, out of which, says Jesus, are the issues of life. It may refine the sinner, but it will not save him. The truth is, man does not have the power resident within himself to work the change. Notwithstanding the boasting of his natural heart, he is absolutely helpless and needs what it cannot give. Making the change that is necessary if he is to see or enter into the kingdom of God.

But what man cannot do for himself, God, in infinite mercy, is ready and willing to do for him. Ample provision has been made by which man radically wrong may be radically changed. First, God sent Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, to seek and save the lost. Secondly, the Good Shepherd laid down his life for the sheep. That is, on the cross he died for our sins, the just for the unjust. Thirdly, he not only laid down his life for the lost sheep, but he rose from the dead and today, as the Living One, who was dead and is alive for evermore, he gives life.

And to whom, we may well ask, does he will to give life? To those and only to those who come to him for life. Among the seediest words that Jesus ever uttered are these, "Ye would not come unto me that ye might have life" (John 5:40). That is, he was true then, is sadly true now, for only one thing keeps a man who is radically wrong from being radically changed, and that is his own will. "But how," you may say, "shall I come?" Come, my friend, just as you are, with all your sin. God knows, if you do not, how much you need to be changed, and God knows, if you do not, how much you need to come and are born from above you cannot enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Perhaps you do not understand just what it is to come to Christ. It is just this and nothing more: to come to Christ is to receive him by faith as your one personal Savior; it is to trust him to do in your life just what he says he will do, save you from sin, the guilt and power. Will you do that? Will you believe him? Will you receive him now? If so, just lift your heart in prayer to God and say: "Oh, God, I now take Jesus Christ as my Savior and Lord of my life, and I ask thee to make the radical change in my life that I so much need, for I desire to see and to enter into the kingdom of heaven. Do this, O God, for I am thine." Then, having said this in your heart, read these Scriptures very carefully over again, remembering that you may see the truth of his Word.

PEACH Dainties of MERTY

Many Ways of Preparing Fruit Which All Appreciate for its Peach Flavor.

For peach cobbler, prepare plain pastry from three parts of flour and three-fourths of a pound of mixed lard and butter. Line the baking dish with this and, pour in two quarts of freshly stewed peaches, covering the dish with a pastry lid, pierced here and there to let out steam. Bake until brown, then cover thickly with powdered sugar and serve steaming hot with rich cream.

Here is another peach pie recipe. Make a rich pastry crust until brown and crisp and then cool. Just at serving time heap it high with sliced peaches, sprinkle with sugar and pile whipped cream on top. A variation of this recipe is this: Cut short pastry into squares and fold the four corners to the center. Moisten them with milk, press them firmly so that they will remain in place, prick the pastry with a fork and bake one square for each person. Brown in the oven, chill and serve piled high with peaches cut into large pieces, stewed just until tender and sweetened to taste. Top with a big spoonful of whipped cream. Sift another peach pie, the favorite of a very good cook, is this: Sift together a cupful and a half of flour, a quarter of a cupful of sugar, two tablespoons of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Into this cot half a cupful of butter and add enough milk to make a stiff batter. Use as little milk as possible. Roll into a thick sheet, line a deep pie pan with it and place peaches into it. Sweeten them well and cover them with sour or sweet milk, then bake until done in a moderate oven.

A tempting dessert is peach whip. To make it press ripe peaches through a vegetable press, sweeten to taste and mix immediately with whipped cream or whipped egg whites. Pipe in tall glasses and serve very cold.

Another tempting dessert is a peach sandwich, one for each person. Slice a state sponge cake and dip the slices quickly in milk. Then brown in butter. Between each two slices, add a freshly sliced, sweetened peach and pile on whipped cream.

METHOD OF PICKLING ONIONS

Writer Makes Some Suggestions Which Seem to Be Worthy of Consideration.

Pickling the onions is a decidedly painful task, but it is made less so if they are done in cold water. Some people press put them under water and allow them to come to the boil before peeling them. I prefer the former plan. With small silver pickling onions to each quart of water, add one tablespoonful of black pepper, two (two) spoonfuls of salt, two bay leaves. Between each two slices, add a freshly sliced, sweetened peach and pile on whipped cream.

Barley Water With Jelly. Place two ounces of pearl barley with very little water in a saucepan, and when water gey this off and add a quart of fresh water and simmer gently for three-quarters of an hour. Strain through a muslin and add three tablespoonfuls of red currant jelly; allow to cool and serve.

Other favorites to the form of raspberry vinegar, cranberry jelly, or black currant jelly may be added. Orange rind and juice may also be added as a change.

Apple and Bunt Pudding. Two cupfuls of chopped apples, two cupfuls of chopped raisins, one cupful of sour milk, one cupful of molasses, one cupful of soft and four ounces of milk to make a stiff batter. Begin by putting one teaspoonful of soda in the milk, then add a little strained molasses and cinnamon and a pinch of salt. Stir the mix into this mixture and then put in the sour a small quantity at a time. Boil until it is unaltered.

Chocolate Pie. Put one and a half cupfuls milk on stove to heat. When hot, thicken with following mixture: Well-beaten yolks of two eggs, half cupful sugar, one tablespoonful corn starch, one tablespoonful cocoa, a pinch of salt, half cupful milk. When cool, flavor with vanilla, put in pie shell, cover with a frosting made of the white of egg and add one tablespoonful of sugar. Brown in oven.

Instant Egg Nog. Thoroughly beat up an egg with a dash teaspoonful of sugar—doing this in the glass in which the "nog" is to be served. Then fill the glass with hot brandy and give another good stir. This is very nourishing and almost always inviting to the children, who at times take a distaste for solid foods.

Banquet Salad. Remove seeds and membranes from green peppers, cut in form of baskets, fill with chopped meat, chicken, cold meats and stuffed olives. Use your favorite salad dressing.

THEATRES

REAL ARTISTS AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE

Real stars of the footlights with each other at the Booker Washington Theatre this week and the bill is full of art, up-to-date and entertaining.

Miss Josephine Tobias, a favorite singer, with a most entrancing voice is scoring a big applause on her swanee numbers. She is singing, "Swanee River" and "My Old Home in Dixie Land," both with her own vocalization, the closer with "The Garden of the Gods," and is heartily cheered.

Selman and Selman, a team that is mainly characterized by the excellent best voice of the male member, is losing favor because of repetition. The act and songs have been presented here so often that the patrons are tired of it. With a new vehicle Selman would be a big hit here.

Jim Sterling, a white performer with nothing but an improvised violin is a decided novelty with a punch. With this instrument he executes several imitations that set winners and get the hand in big measure. His feature is the wondrous mind of a boy who is taking his music lesson. The set is from "Big Time" and is well appreciated.

Butler and Bailey return more popular than ever. These lively boys are original and know what pleases the patrons. They always have something new and herein give the key to their success. "The South Smellers," they are full of the richest comedy. Their eccentric dancing and singing keep the audience in a spasm of laughter and applause. Their act is one of, if not the best, seen here since the days of the old D. O. K. Time.

NEW MOVIE THEATRE A MOORE PICTURE HOUSE

The Movie Theater, on Market, near Jefferson, reopened its doors to the public last Sunday. The place has undergone extensive repairs and decorations. The roof has been raised several feet and windows placed on both sides of the building permitting a perfect ventilation. The screens have also been raised and it is now possible for patrons in the back rows to see the pictures with the most comfort. Manager Tommie Jones has also secured a program of most interesting pictures to be shown every Sunday. Next Sunday, "The Days of Thundering Herd," a 5 reel picture, with Indian soldiers, cowboys, buffaloes, etc., will be shown. The serial picture, "Romance of Elaine," is run every Monday. This house is now on a par with the best 5 cent houses in the city.

NEW FINNEY AVENUE THEATRE

The Pendleton Theatre, a new moving picture house on Finney Ave., just east of Pendleton, opened to the public this week. This is the only picture house, for colored, west of Jefferson Ave., and is one of the most 5 cent theaters in the city. The manager, Jack Smith, has secured some of the biggest serials, including "Exploits of Elaine," on Monday and Thursday night. "Master Key" and Charlie Chaplin, on Saturday nights. The doors open at 6:30 p. m. Sunday matinee at 2:30.

Tim Moore and Miss Gertrude Brown, of Chicago, were married in Louisville, September 3. Tim was recently divorced from Heiter Moore. He and Theo. Pankey are to team together in a new act entitled, "The Devil and the Coo."

Tugart Hartgraves and Tommie Gates worked at the Olivette, in Louisville, last week. Hartgraves is home this week on a vacation.

THE CAPE MAXIME

The Cape Maxime, at Pine and Channing, entrance on Channing, had its informal opening to a fashionable crowd last Monday night. This beautiful place is the largest in the city, is elegantly decorated and its walls lined with marble. The managers have started out with a most fashionable clientele. An up-to-date cabaret is in charge of the following entertainers: Ed Hudson, Vernie Robinson, Rom Brown and Arthur Chassey. A special big souvenir night will be given October 1. The cafe can be rented for parties and receptions.

BASEBALL

GIANTS WILL PLAY ALPHEN BRAUS SUNDAY

Charlie Mills' St. Louis Giants will play the Alphen Bruns, Sunday at Brock Park, 3600 S. Broadway. The Alphen Bruns won the pennant of the second half of the International League this season and is considered the best semi-pro white team in this part of the country, but Ed Brock has been busy all week signing up players to beat the Giants next Sunday. He has secured, Kaskel, third baseman of Peoria, and Hollocher, a second baseman from the Central League, to perform. "Lefty" Alberts will be on the mound and Johnny Brock behind the bat. Manager Mills will have his regular team and is confident of victory. The Alphen Bruns will play a double header, the first game being with another team. The Giants' game will start at 3:30 and as the park is expected to be crowded by that time, those who wish to see the game should go early. The Alphen Bruns are scheduled for two games with the Cardinals, October 16, 17.

In the series last week, the Giants beat Robt. Foster's American Giants three out of five completed games. One game, Thursday, was a tie. "Spec" Webster and Gatewood were injured in an automobile accident Friday, and with Smith's new arm, the team pulled up lame Saturday. To fill a previous engagement, Manager Mills was forced to send the boys to Chicago with one pitcher. They lost a three-game series, but fought to the end. Jimmie Lyons pitched a five-hit game Wednesday, and only lost by the close score of 4 to 3. The team will be at its best Sunday, when it meets Ed Brock's improvised champions at 3600 South Broadway.

Kid Cary, substitute third baseman on the Giants, was under two big Chicago on account of the death of his brother.

The white East St. Louis Giants won from Kyle's Giants 3-1 last Sunday. The same teams play a double-header next Sunday at Palo Park, East St. Louis. First game starts at 1:30.

KEYSTONE CAFE BOOMING

The Keystone Cafe continues to hold its own and be in popular favor with admirers of good service, courteous treatment and up-to-date entertainment. Tom Mills and George Reynolds are handling this cabaret program with credit. After October 1, the kitchen will be on the second floor and a hangover will be concentrated in the rear of the dining hall. As usual, Veiled Prophet night will be a big one at this popular cafe.

Speak Robinson, and Miss Marie Flanagan are entertaining at the Douglas Cafe.

Battling Ball complains to the Argus that the matchmaker at the Futate City Club will not give him a chance to meet any of his boxers. He wants to box Leo Johnson, Maxie Kid, or any of them. Ball says he has never been knocked out and submits his record of eleven victories in one draw and two defeats. He bars will come in the 125 class, and would like to hear from some good promoter. His address is Carl Hall, 509 Pine St.

CRYSTAL PALACE CAFE

The Crystal Palace Cafe, at 2901 Lawton Ave., has, during its short existence, become one of the city's popular meeting places. Mr. Charles A. Boggs, the proprietor, offers equal opportunities to all and special privileges to none. An excellent cuisine is in charge of Wm. Daddly, while the well known caterers are given the ladies. A lady attendant is always present to insure courteous treatment. The rare entertainers are Webb Owles, Ralph Torres and Walter Farlington.

Ite Young, who has been entertaining with Miss Beulah McQueen at the Carillon Cafe, left Thursday for a visit with his brother in Chicago.
